

Location

Robert Perdue's funeral will be held at Greenwood Cemetery in Wayne NE. The Address is:

612 W 7th St, Wayne, NE 68787 (<- This is a clickable link to google maps)

His burial site is in the Veterans section (Highlighted in Red Square on above map), Row 2, Grave 8 (Highlighted in Red Circle on Above Map). Once you are in Wayne, you will need to find West 7th St/HWY 35 and follow that to the western part of town. There are four entrances to the cemetery and sometimes they aren't all open. If you miss one, no worries, you can always go to the next one. Parking is on the road and you will need to walk a little to get to the grave site. If you need to, please bring a chair to sit on.

Directions

If you are coming from the East or West, you will be on HWY 35 as you enter town. If coming from the West, the cemetery is one of the first locations on your left. If you are coming from the East, you will need to go through the entire town of Wayne, but you never need to turn until you reach the cemetery, which will be on your right as you exit the town.

Those of you coming from the North or South on HWY 15, you will need to drive to the center of town and find the only major intersection in town, between HWY 15 and HWY 35. There is a Dairy Queen on the NW corner for reference. If coming from the South, you will turn left at this intersection; if coming from the North you will turn right. After you turn you will go toward the end of town where the cemetery will be located on your right.

Attire

Some people ask what to wear to these. This is a full military rights funeral for a retired enlisted officer of the United States Air Force. Code of conduct provided by the DoD states all attendees should wear formal dress (Men Slacks, button up, and tie at minimum; Women Sunday best, but we all know you are never the problem at these things ☺). All that being said, Dad probably wouldn't care what you wear, so just show up.
